

FOOD SAFETY POLICY

We, members of HJS condiments Limited, are committed to ensure the customer satisfaction, Safety, & legality & authenticity of the product by eliminating all potential biological, chemical and physical hazards encountered with our fruit, vegetable, coconut and oil-based products or by reducing them to an acceptable level through implementation of food safety culture, that Shared values, beliefs and norms that affect mindset and behavior towards food safety in across and throughout the organization with the involvement of all employees for an effective food safety system.

We believe that the continual improvement of our customer safety approach is based on the commitment and contribution of our employees towards food safety and upgrading the knowledge and skill on food safety.

We adhere legal and legislative requirements of our country and exporting country of destinations.

27.02.2023

Date :

Director